

(a) through (e), Washington Court Rules

(f) In all actions tried to the court, counsel for each party shall, two days prior to trial, provide the Court and opposing counsel with proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law. Provided, that proposed findings and conclusions are not required in domestic cases of any kind, except that the court may, at its discretion, require proposed findings and conclusions, in a particular case or the parties may voluntarily submit such findings and conclusions.

(g) Time Limit for Presentation. In cases tried to the court, findings of fact, conclusions of law and a proposed judgment shall be presented within twenty (20) days of the court's oral or memorandum decision; provided however, that in the event post-trial motions are filed, the twenty (20) days shall run from the date of ruling on such motions.

In the event that said findings of fact, conclusions of law and the proposed judgment are presented to the court in excess of twenty (20) days of the court's oral decision, the party presenting such findings of fact, conclusions of law and proposed judgment shall, if requested by the court, prepare and file a transcript of the court's oral decision.
